Lagardère Unlimited Inks Multi-Year Representation Agreement with Stanislas Wawrinka

Lagardère Unlimited announced today the signature of Stanislas Wawrinka ranked 23rd on the ATP world tour.

“We are delighted to welcome Stanislas Wawrinka at Lagardère Unlimited. We are very excited and very proud to have the opportunity to represent a talent such as Stanislas. To manage a gold medallist at Lagardere Unlimited is a real honour which very few agencies have the privilege in doing”, says Arnaud Lagardère.

After a solid career on the junior circuit winning the prestigious Roland Garros Grand Slam Title in 2003, and reaching a career high of 9 ATP in 2008, he has now established himself as a marquee player on the ATP circuit. His career highlights include two ATP titles in Umag (2006) and Casablanca (2010) and a Gold medal in doubles at the Beijing Olympics with world number one Roger Federer. He has also reached the finals of Chennai (2010), Rome and Doha (2008), Vienna and Stuttgart (2007) and Gstaad (2005).

He is currently coached by Dimitri Zavialoff from the age of 8.

Stan will be managed by Nicolas Lamperin out of the Lagardère Unlimited office in Paris.
